

Dowsing in Homeopathic Practice

An experiential weekend on

Dowsing and Homeopathy

with Robert Duddell

On the weekend of 14-15 October 2017

10 am to 5 pm each day

Cost £150

at The Homeopathy College

454 Hagley Road West

Birmingham B68 0DL

Includes Robert's dowsing materials

Bring your own pendulum

Only 5 places available

Full details and to book

Tel: 01453 547222

Dowsing weekend Information - October 2017

The purpose of the seminar is to explain how to treat homoeopathically utilising a person's hair sample or a photograph. I have evolved a system over the past 15 years, that brings together my thirty years of clinical experience and insights. This system enables the practitioner to identify clearly what are the obstacles to health in each individual and subsequently to be able to eliminate them.

In a past life, before homeopathy, I was an engineer - I have always liked simple, elegant and practical solutions to problems. I feel very excited now to be able to share this system with other like minded practitioners. The method that I have evolved is unique and straightforward. All that is needed to apply this system is the ability to use a pendulum confidently, which you can get by practice.

I shall be concentrating on the application of my method rather than the mechanics of pendulum use. The British Society of Dowzers sell very good pendulums, supply books on the basics and have information about courses (www.britishdowzers.org).

The benefits as a practitioner are that effective results can be achieved quickly without spending vast amounts of time analysing cases. By directly tuning in to the person's energy, it is possible to gain a very clear understanding of what has caused the disturbances in the person's health. This further creates a confidence to be able to tackle any condition and your practice is likely to grow as a consequence.

Robert

The advantages of being able to tune in to the vitality directly

- A reliance on direct contact with the body's innate intelligence, rather than having to interpret and trust symptoms.
- Greater accuracy of prescribing.
- More rapid and stable healing.
- Less time spent with case taking and repertorization.
- Rapid access to the obstacles to cure for the individual, which can include nutritional, food intolerances, allergies and toxicity.
- Easy access to the most similar remedy, appropriate potency and frequency, making healing effective and fast.
- The ability to be able to treat anybody whatever language they speak.
- The ability to be able to treat family and friends objectively.
- The ability to treat animals.
- The ability to treat anyone at a distance without the need for face to face contact.

5 places available.

Book now - Tel: 01453 547222